INDEX OF AUTHORS

A

Anderson, W. F. (and B. Evans): Rupture of the interventricular septum. 537.
Andrew, A. M. (and F. W. Campbell, and A. W. Sloan): An electronic phonocardiograph employing a double-beam cathode-ray oscillograph as the recording device. 271.
Armstrong, J. B. (and L. Cudkowicz): Injection of the bronchial circulation in a case of transposition. 374.
Astley, R. (and Clifford Parsons): Complete transposition of the great vessels. 13.

B

Ball, J. D. (and H. Kopelman, and A. C. Witham): Circulatory changes in mitral stenosis at rest and on exercise. 363.
Barnes, C. G. (and H. V. L. Finlay): Cor triatriatum. 283.
Barritt, D. W. (and W. O'Brien): Heart disease in scleroderma. 421.
Black, A. B.: Rupture of the interventricular septum. 288.
Boer, W. den (and J. B. Van Milaan, and H. C. Burger): Comparison of different systems of vectorcardiography. 401.
Braun, K. (and A. M. Cohen): A comparison of unipolar leads obtained with the methods of Wilson and Goldberger. 462.
Brigden, W. (and J. Shillingford): The vectorcardiogram of cardiac infarction. 339.
Brink, A. J. (and J. F. Goodwin): Præcordial T deflection of the electrocardiogram. 331.
Briscoe, W. A. (and J. P. D. Mounsey, L. W. Ritzmann, N. J. Selverstone, and G. A. McLemore): Circulatroy changes in severe pulmonary emphysema. 153.
Brock, R. C.: The surgical and pathological anatomy of the mitral valve. 489.
Burger, H. C. (and J. B. Van Milaan, and W. den Boer): Comparison of different systems of vectorcardiography. 401.

C

Campbell, F. W. (and A. W. Sloan, and A. M. Andrew): An electronic phonocardiograph employing a double-beam cathode-ray oscillograph as the recording device. 271.
Campbell, Maurice (and Frances Gardner and Geoffrey Reynolds): Cor biloculare. 317.
—— (and Geoffrey Reynolds): The significance of the direction of the P wave in dextrocardia and isolated lævocardia. 481.
Cohen, A. M. (and K. Braun): A comparison of unipolar leads obtained with the methods of Wilson and Goldberger. 462.
Cookson, Harold: Paroxysmal ventricular standstill. 350.
Cudkowicz, L. (and J. B. Armstrong): Injection of the bronchial circulation in a case of transposition. 374.

D

Dale, R. (and M. B. Matthews, and I. K. R. McMillan): The movement of aortic and pulmonary valves studied post mortem by colour cinematography. 42.
Davies, D. H.: Acute benign pericarditis of unknown origin. 309.
Davies, L. G. (and G. R. Venning): Electrokymography—preliminary studies. 33.
——: A familial heart disease. 206
Deuchar, D. C. (and R. Knebel): The pulmonary and systemic circulations in congenital heart disease. 225.
Dewar, H. A. (and W. G. A. Swan): The heart in hæmochromatosis. 117.
Dimond, E. Grey (and T. J. Rankin): Clinical electrocardiography: Three-dimensional visual aids to teaching. 112.

E

East, Terence (and Samuel Oram): The cardiogram in ventricular aneurysm following cardiac infarction. 125.
Evans, William (and Frederic Jackson); Constrictive pericarditis. 53.
—— (and Colin McRae): The lesser electrocardiographic signs of cardiac pain. 429.

F

Felkai, B. (and D. Halmágyi, J. Iványi, and G. Hetényi, Jr.): The role of the nervous system in the maintenance of venous hypertension in heart failure. 101.
Finlay, H. V. L. (and C. G. Barnes): Cor triatriatum. 283.
Fulton, R. M. (and E. C. Hutchinson, and A. Morgan Jones): Ventricular weight in cardiac hypertrophy. 413.

G

Gardner, Frances (and Maurice Campbell, and Geoffrey Reynolds): Cor biloculare. 317.
Gibbs, D.: Dihydrogenated alkaloids of ergot in the investigation and treatment of diastolic hypertension. 77.
Gillanders, A. D. (and J. Higginson, and J. F. Murray): The heart in chronic malnutrition. 213.
Goodwin, J. F.: The electrocardiogram in normal children and in children with right ventricular hypertrophy. 173.
—— (and A. J. Brink): Præcordial T deflection of the elctrocardiogram. 331.
—— (and A. Pagnoni): The cardiographic diagnosis of combined ventricular hypertrophy. 451.
Gresham, G. A.: A case of ventricular fibrillation. 527.

H

Hadley, Montague: Coal-gas poisoning and cardiac sequelæ. 534.
Halmágyi, D. (and B. Felkai, J. Iványi, and G. Hetényi, Jr.): The role of the nervous system in the maintenance of venous hypertension in heart failure. 101.
Hay, J. D. (and S. E. Keidan): Persistent ectopic auricular tachycardia in children. 345.
Henry, W. E.: The small pulmonary vessels in mitral stenosis. 406.
Hetényi, G., Jr. (and D. Halmágyi, B. Felkai, and J. Iványi): The role of the nervous system in the maintenance of venous hypertension in heart failure. 101.
Higginson, J. (and A. D. Gillanders, and J. F. Murray): The heart in chronic malnutrition. 213.
Hoffman, I. (and J. A. Schack, and H. Vesell): The response of arrhythmias and tachycardias of supraventricular origin to oral procaine amide. 465.
Humerfelt, S. (and O. Storstein, O. Müller, and H. Rasmussen): Patent ductus arteriosus in a woman aged 72 years. 276.

I

Iványi, J. (and D. Halmágyi, B. Felkai, and G. Hetényi, Jr.): The role of the nervous system in the maintenance of venous hypertension in heart failure. 101.

J

Jackson, Frederic (and William Evans): Constrictive pericarditis. 53.
Jago, Margaret: A case of dissecting aneurysm of the aorta with hemiplegia diagnosed during life. 279.
Jones, A. Morgan (and E. C. Hutchinson, and R. M. Fulton): Ventricular weight in cardiac hypertrophy. 413.

K

Keidan, S. E. (and J. D. Hay): Persistent ectopic auricular tachycardia in children. 345.
Kendall, D. (and B. Symonds): Epileptiform attacks due to myxoma of the right auricle. 139.
Knebel, R. (and D. C. Deuchar): The pulmonary and systemic circulations in congenital heart disease. 225.
Kopelman, H. (and J. D. Ball, and A. C. Witham): Circulatory changes in mitral stenosis at rest and on exercise. 363.

L

Lewes, D.: The Exercise test in patent ductus arteriosus. 357.
Lucas, B. G. B. (and D. S. Short): Procaine amide in the control of cardiac arrhythmias. 470.

M

Matthews, M. B. (and R. Daley, and I. K. R. McMillan): The Movement of aortic and pulmonary valves studied post mortem by colour cinematography. 42.
McDonald, L. (and R. Semple): An exercise test in intermittent claudication. 91.
McGregor, M. (and M. Medalie): Coarctation of the aorta. 531.
McKeown, Florence: The pathology of pulmonary heart disease. 25.
McLemore, G. A. (and J. P. D. Mounsey, L. W. Ritzmann, W. A. Briscoe, and N. J. Selverstone): Circulatory changes in severe pulmonary emphysema. 153.
McMillan, I. K. R. (and R. Daley, and M. B. Matthews): The movement of aortic and pulmonary valves studied post mortem by colour cinematography. 42.
McRae, Colin (and William Evans): The lesser electrocardiographic signs of cardiac pain. 429.
Medalie, M. (and M. McGregor): Coarctation of the aorta. 531.
Morton, E. V. B. (and R. W. D. Turner): The anoxæmic test for coronary insufficiency. 514.
Mounsey, J. P. D. (and L. W. Ritzmann, and N. J. Selverstone): Cardiographic studies in severe pulmonary emphysema. 442.
—— (and L. W. Ritzmann, N. J. Selverstone, W. A. Briscoe, and G. A. McLemore): Circulatory changes in severe pulmonary emphysema. 153.
Müller, O. (and O. Storstein, S. Humerfelt, and H. Rasmussen): Patent ductus arteriosus in a woman aged 72 years. 276.
Murray, J. F. (and J. Higginson and A. D. Gillanders): The heart in chronic malnutrition. 213.

O

O'Brien, W. (and D. W. Barritt): Heart disease in scleroderma. 421.
Oram, Samuel (and Terence East): The cardiogram in ventricular aneurysm following cardiac infarction. 125.
Osborn, S. B. (and H. Payling Wright): Effect of posture on venous velocity, measured with 24NaCl. 325.

P

Pagnoni, A. (and J. F. Goodwin): The cardiographic diagnosis of combined ventricular hypertrophy. 451.
Papp, Cornelio: Acute cardiac infarction without pain. 250.
Parsons, Clifford (and R. Astley): Complete transposition of the great vessels. 13.
Penfold, J. B. (and A. I. D. Prentice): Aneurysm of the coronary arteries. 87.
Petch, C. B.: Congenital aortic aneurysm with valvular stenosis and dissecting aneurysm. 150.
Potter, C. T. (and D. Q. Trounce): Congenital partial heart block. 291.
Prentice, A. I. D. (and J. B. Penfold): Aneurysm of the coronary arteries. 87.

R

Rankin, T. J. (and E. Grey Dimond): Clinical electrocardiography: Three-dimensional visual aids to teaching. 112.
Rasmussen, H. (and O. Storstein, S. Humerfelt, and O. Müller): Patent ductus arteriosus in a woman aged 72 years. 276.
Restall, P. A. (and F. H. Smirk): Regulation of blood pressure levels by hexamethonium bromide and mechanical devices. 1.
Reynolds, Geoffrey (and Maurice Campbell, and Frances Gardner): Cor biloculare. 317.
—— (and Maurice Campbell): The significance of the P wave in dextrocardia and isolated lævocardia. 481.
Ritzmann, L. W. (and J. P. D. Mounsey, N. J. Selverstone, W. A. Briscoe, and G. A. McLemore): Circulatory changes in severe pulmonary emphysema. 153.
—— (and J. P. D. Mounsey, and N. J. Selverstone): Cardiographic studies in severe pulmonary emphysema. 442.
Rose, L. M.: Electrocardiographic changes in acute poliomyelitis in childhood. 391.

Salzmann, F. (and W. Weissel, and H. Vetter): Pulmonary capillary arterial pressure pulse in man. 47.
Schack, J. A. (and I. Hoffman, and H. Vesell): The response of arrhythmias and tachycardias of supraventricular origin to oral procaine amide. 465.
Selverstone, N. J. (and J. P. D. Mounsey, L. W. Ritzmann, W. A. Briscoe, and G. A. McLemore): Circulatory changes in severe pulmonary emphysema. 153.
—— (and J. P. D. Mounsey, and L. W. Ritzmann): Cardiographic studies in severe pulmonary emphysema. 442.
Semple, R. (and L. McDonald): An exercise test in intermittent claudication. 91.
Shillingford, J. (and W. Brigden): The vectorcardiogram of cardiac infarction. 339.
Short, D. S. (and B. G. B. Lucas): Procaine amide in the control of cardiac arrhythmias. 470.
Sloan, A. W. (and F. W. Campbell, and A. M. Andrew): An electronic phonocardiograph employing a double-beam cathode-ray oscillograph as the recording device. 271.
Smirk, F. H. (and P. A. Restall): Regulation of blood pressure levels by hexamethonium bromide and mechanical devices. 1.
Snow, P. D.: Tricuspid atresia: a new radioscopic sign. 387.
Storstein, O. (and S. Humerfelt, O. Müller, and H. Rasmussen): Patent ductus arteriosus in a woman aged 72 years. 276.
Symonds, B. (and D. Kendall): Epileptiform attacks due to myxoma of the right auricle. 139.
Swan, W. G. A. (and H. A. Dewar): The heart in hæmochromatosis. 117.

T

Trounce, D. Q. (and C. T. Potter): Congenital partial heart block. 291.
Trounce, J. R.: The electrocardiogram in mitral stenosis. 185.
Tulloch, J. A.: The electrocardiographic features of high posterolateral myocardial infarction. 379.
Turner, R. W. D. (and E. V. B. Morton): The anoxæmic test for coronary insufficiency. 514

V

Van Milaan, J. B. (and H. C. Burger, and W. den Boer): Comparison of different systems of vectorcardiography, 401.
Venning, G. R. (and L. G. Davies): Electrokymography—preliminary studies. 33.
Vesell, H. (and J. A. Schack, and I. Hoffman): The response of arrhythmias and tachycardias of supraventricular origin to oral procaine amide. 465.
Vetter, H. (and F. Salzmann, and W. Weissel): Pulmonary capillary arterial pressure pulse in man. 47.

W

Wade, Geoffrey: Congenital heart disease in one of uniovular twins. 475.
Walker, Betty: Coronary embolism and coronary occlusion in bacterial endocarditis. 144.
Weissel, W. (and F. Salzmann, and H. Vetter): Pulmonary capillary arterial pressure pulse in man. 47.
Wells, Bertrand, G.: The graphic configuration of apical diastolic murmurs. 261.
Witham, A. C. (and H. Kopelman, and J. D. Ball): Circulatory changes in mitral stenosis at rest and on exercise. 363.
Woods, Arnold: The electrocardiogram in tetralogy of Fallot. 193.
Wright, H. Payling (and S. B. Osborn): Effect of posture on venous velocity, measured with 24NaCl. 325.

Zimdahl, W.: Rheumatic fever in young adults. 70.

INDEX OF SUBJECTS

Abstracts of cardiology. 150, 299, 425, and 553.
Acute benign pericarditis of unknown origin (D. H. Davies). 309.
Acute cardiac infarction without pain (Cornelio Papp). 250.
Anatomy of the mitral valve, The surgical and pathological (R. C. Brock). 489.
Aneurysm following cardiac infarction, The cardiogram in ventricular (Terence East and Samuel Oram). 125.
Aneurysm of the coronary arteries (A. I. D. Prentice and J. B. Penfold). 87.
Anoxæmia test for coronary insufficiency (R. W. D. Turner and E. V. B. Morton). 514.
Apical diastolic murmurs, The Graphic configuration of (Bertrand G. Wells). 261.
Auricular tachycardia in children, Persistent ectopic (J. D. Hay and S. E. Keidan). 345.

B

Biloculare, Cor (Maurice Campbell, Frances Gardner, and Geoffrey Reynolds). 317.
British Cardiac Society, Proceedings. 294 and 541.
Bronchial circulation in a case of transposition, Injection of the (L. Cudkowicz and J. B. Armstrong). 374.

C

Cardiac arrhythmias, Procaine amide in the control of (G. B. Lucas and D. S. Short). 470.
Cardiac infarction, Cardiogram in ventricular aneurysm following (Terence East and Samuel Oram). 125.
Cardiac infarction, Vectorcardiogram of (W. Brigden and J. Shillingford). 339.
Cardiac infarction without pain, Acute (Cornelio Papp). 250.
Cardiac pain, Lesser electrocardiographic signs of (William Evans and Colin McRae). 429.
Cardiogram in ventricular aneurysm following cardiac infarction (Terence East and Samuel Oram). 125.
Cardiographic diagnosis of combined ventricular hypertrophy (A. Pagnoni and J. F. Goodwin). 451.
Cardiographic studies in severe pulmonary emphysema (J. P. D. Mounsey, L. W. Ritzmann, and N. J. Selverstone). 442.
Case of dissecting aneurysm of the aorta with hemiplegia diagnosed during life (Margaret Jago). 279.
Case of ventricular fibrillation (G. A. Gresham). 527.
Children, Persistent ectopic auricular tachycardia in (J. D. Hay and S. E. Keidan). 345.
Cinematography, Movement of aortic and pulmonary valves studied post mortem by colour (I. K. R. McMillan, R. Daley, and M. B. Matthews). 42.
Circulations in congenital heart disease, Pulmonary and systemic (D. C. Deuchar and R. Knebel). 225.
Circulatory changes in mitral stenosis at rest and on exercise (J. D. Ball, H. Kopelman and A. C. Witham). 365.
Circulatory changes in severe pulmonary emphysema (J. P. D. Mounsey, L. W. Ritzmann, N. J. Selverstone, W. A. Briscoe, and G. A. McLemore). 135.
Clinical electrocardiography, Three-dimensional visual aides to teaching (T. J. Rankin and E. Grey Dimond). 112.
Coal-gas poisoning and cardiac sequelæ (Montague Hadley). 534.
Coarctation of the aorta (McGregor and M. Medalie). 531.
Comparison of different systems of vectorcardiography (H. C. Burger, J. B. Van Milaan and W. Den Boer). 401.
Comparison of unipolar leads obtained with the methods of Wilson and Godberger (K. Braun and A. M. Cohen). 462.
Complete transposition of the great vessels (R. Astley and Clifford Parsons). 13.
Congenital aortic aneurysm with valvular stenosis and dissecting aneurysm (C. P. Petch). 147
Congenital heart disease in one of uniovular twins (Geoffrey Wade). 475.
Congenital partial heart block (C. T. Potter and D. Q. Trounce). 291.
Constrictive pericarditis (William Evans and Frederic Jackson). 53.
Cor biloculare (Maurice Campbell, Frances Gardner, and Geoffrey Reynolds). 317.
Coronary arteries, Aneurysm of the (A. I. D. Prentice and J. B. Penfold). 87.
Coronary embolism and coronary occlusion in bacterial endocarditis (Betty Walker). 144.
Coronary insufficiency, Anoxæmia test for (R. W. D. Turner and E. V. B. Norton). 514.
Cor triatriatum (C. G. Barnes and H. V. L. Finlay). 283.

Dextrocardia and isolated lævocardia, The significance of the direction of the P wave in (Maurice Campbell and Geoffrey Reynolds). 481.
Dihydrogenated alkaloids of ergot in the investigation and treatment of diastolic hypertension (D. F. Gibbs). 77.

E

Effect of posture on venous velocity, measured with 24NaCl (H. Payling Wright and S. B. Osborn). 325.
Electrocardiogram in mitral stenosis (J. R. Trounce). 185.
Electrocardiogram in normal children and in children with right ventricular hypertrophy (J. F. Goodwin). 173.
Electrocardiogram in tetralogy of Fallot (Arnold Woods). 193.
Electrocardiogram, Præcordial T deflection on the (A. J. Brink and J. F. Goodwin). 331.
Electrocardiographic changes in acute poliomyelitis in childhood (L. M. Rose). 391.
Electrocardiographic features of high postero-lateral myocardial infarction (J. A. Tulloch). 379.
Electrocardiographic signs of cardiac pain, Lesser (William Evans and Colin McRae). 429.
Electrokymography—preliminary studies (L. G. Davies and G. R. Venning). 33.
Electronic phonocardiograph employing a double-beam cathode-ray oscillograph as the recording device (F. W. Campbell, A. W. Sloan, and A. M. Andrew). 271.
Epileptiform attacks due to myxoma of the right auricle (D. Kendall and B. Symonds). 139.
Ergot in the investigation and treatment of diastolic hypertension, Dihydrogenated alkaloids of (D. F. Gibbs). 77.
European Congress of Cardiology Scientific programme. 547.
Exercise test in intermittent claudication (L. McDonald and R. Semple). 91.
Exercise test in patent ductus arteriosus (D. Lewes). 357.

F

Fallot, The electrocardiogram in the tetralogy of (Arnold Woods). 193.
Familial heart disease (L. G. Davies). 206.

G

Graphic configuration of apical diastolic murmurs (Bertrand G. Wells). 261.

H

Hæmochromatosis, Heart in (W. G. A. Swan and H. A. Dewar). 117.
Heart disease, Familial (L. G. Davies). 206.
Heart disease in scleroderma (D. W. Barritt and W. O'Brien). 421.
Heart disease, The pathology of pulmonary (Florence McKeown). 25.
Heart failure, The role of the nervous system in the maintenance of venous hypertension in (D. Halmágyi, B. Felkai, J. Iványi, and G. Hetényi, Jr.). 101.
Heart in chronic malnutrition (J. Higginson, A. D. Gillanders, and J. F. Murray). 213.
Heart in hæmochromatosis (W. G. A. Swan and H. A. Dewar). 117.
Hexamethonium bromide and mechanical devices, Regulation of blood pressure levels by (P. A. Restall and F. H. Smirk). 1.
Hypertension, Dihydrogenated alkaloids of ergot in the investigation and treatment of diastolic (D. F. Gibbs). 77.
Hypertrophy, Ventricular weight in cardiac (R. M. Fulton, E. C. Hutchinson, and A. Morgan Jones). 413.

I

Injection of the bronchial circulation in a case of transposition (L. Cudkowicz and J. B. Armstrong). 374.
Intermittent claudication, An exercise test in (L. McDonald and R. Semple). 91.

Lævocardia, The significance of the direction of the P wave in dextrocardia and isolated (Maurice Campbell and Geoffrey Reynolds). 481.
Lesser electrocardiographic signs of cardiac pain (William Evans and Colin McRae). 429.

M

Malnutrition, The heart in chronic (J. Higginson, A. D. Gillanders and J. F. Murray). 213.
Mitral stenosis at rest and on exercise, Circulatory changes in (J. D. Ball, H. Kopelman, and A. C. Witham). 363.
Mitral stenosis, Small pulmonary vessels in (E. W. Henry). 406.
Mitral stenosis, Electrocardiogram in (J. R. Trounce). 185.
Mitral valve, Surgical and pathological anatomy of the (R. C. Brock). 489.
Movement of aortic and pulmonary valves studied post mortem by colour cinematography (I. K. R. McMillan, R. Daley, and M. B. Matthews). 42.
Myocardial infarction, Electrocardiographic features of high postero-lateral (J. A. Tulloch). 379.

N

Nervous system in the maintenance of venous hypertension in heart failure (D. Halmágyi, B. Felkai, J. Iványi, and G. Hetényi, Jr.). 101.

O

Oscillograph as the recording device, Electronic phonocardiograph employing a double-beam cathode-ray (F. W. Campbell, A. W. Sloan, and A. M. Andrew). 271.

P

Paroxysmal ventricular standstill (Harold Cookson). 350.
Patent ductus arteriosus, Exercise test in (D. Lewes). 357.
Patent ductus arteriosus in a woman aged 72 years (O. Storstein, O. Müller, and H. Rasmussen). 276.
Pathology of pulmonary heart disease (Florence McKeown). 25.
Pericarditis, Constrictive (William Evans and Frederic Jackson). 53.
Pericarditis of unknown origin, Acute benign (D. H. Davies). 309.
Persistent ectopic auricular tachycardia in children (J. D. Hay and S. E. Keidan). 345.
Phonocardiograph employing a double-beam cathode-ray oscillograph as the recording device, Electronic (F. W. Campbell, A. W. Sloan, and A. M. Andrew). 271.
Poliomyelitis in childhood, Electrocardiographic changes in (L. M. Rose). 391.
Posture in venous velocity measured with 24NaCl (H. Payling Wright and S. B. Osborn). 325.
Præcordial T deflection on the electrocardiogram (A. J. Brink and J. F. Goodwin). 331.
Preliminary studies, Electrokymography (L. G. Davies and G. R. Venning). 33
Procaine amide in the control of cardiac arrhythmias (G. B. Lucas and D. S. Short). 470.
Procaine amide, Response of arrhythmias and tachycardias of supraventricular origin to oral (J. A. Schack, I. Hoffman, and H. Vessell). 465.
Proceedings of the British Cardiac Society. 294 and 541.
Pulmonary and systemic circulations in congenital heart disease (D. C. Deuchar and R. Knebel). 225.
Pulmonary capillary arterial pressure pulse in man (W. Weissel, F. Salzmann, and H. Vetter). 47.
Pulmonary emphysema, Cardiographic studies in severe (J. P. D. Mounsey, L. W. Ritzmann, and N. J. Selverstone). 442.
Pulmonary emphysema, Circulatory changes in severe (J. P. D. Mounsey, L. W. Ritzmann, N. J. Selverstone, W. A. Briscoe and G. A. McLemore). 153.
Pulmonary vessels in mitral stenosis, Small (E. W. Henry). 406.
Pulse in man, Pulmonary capillary arterial pressure (W. Weissel, F. Salzmann and H. Vetter). 47.
P wave in dextrocardia and isolated lævocardia, Significance of the (Maurice Campbell and Geoffrey Reynolds). 481.

R

Radioscopic sign, Tricuspid atresia, A new (P. D. Snow). 387.
Regulation of blood pressure levels of hexamethonium bromide and mechanical devices (P. A. Restall and F. H. Smirk). 1.
Response of arrhythmias and tachycardias of supraventricular origin to oral procaine amide (J. A. Schack, I. Hoffman, and H. Vesell). 465.
Rheumatic fever in young adults (W. T. Zimdahl). 70.
Role of the nervous system in the maintenance of venous hypertension in heart failure (D. Halmágyi, B. Felkai, J. Iványi, and G. Heténvi, Jr.). 101.
Rupture of the interventricular septum (B. Evans and W. F. Anderson). 537.
Rupture of the interventricular septum (A. B. Black). 288.

S

Scleroderma, Heart disease in (D. W. Barritt and W. O'Brien). 421.
Significance of the direction of the P wave in dextrocardia and isolated lævocardia (Maurice Campbell and Geoffrey Reynolds). 481.
Small pulmonary vessels in mitral stenosis (E. W. Henry). 406.
Surgical and pathological anatomy of the mitral valve (R. C. Brock). 489.

T

T deflection on the electrocardiogram, Præcordial (A. J. Brink and J. F. Goodwin). 331.
Three-dimensional visual aids to teaching, Clinical electrocardiography (T. J. Rankin and E. Grey Dimond). 112.
Transposition, Injection of the bronchial circulation in a case of (L. Cudkowicz and J. B. Armstrong). 374.
Transposition of the great vessels, Complete (R. Astley and Clifford Parsons). 13.
Tricuspid atresia: a new radioscopic sign (P. D. Snow). 387.
Twins, Congenital heart disease in one of uniovular (Geoffrey Wade). 475.

U

Unipolar leads obtained with the methods of Wilson and Goldberger (K. Braun and A. M. Cohen). 462.

V

Valves studied post mortem by colour cinematography, Movement of aortic and pulmonary (I. K. R. McMillan, R. Daley, and M. B. Matthews). 42.
Vectorcardiogram of cardiac infarction (W. Brigden and J. Shillingford). 339.
Vectorcardiography, Comparison of different systems of (H. C. Burger, J. B. Van Milaan, and W. den Boer). 401.
Venous velocity measured with 24NaCl (H. Payling Wright and S. B. Osborn). 325.
Ventricular fibrillation, Case of (G. Austin Graham). 527.
Ventricular hypertrophy, Cardiographic diagnosis of combined (A. Pagnoni and J. F. Goodwin). 451.
Ventricular hypertrophy, Electrocardiogram in normal children and in children with right (J. F. Goodwin). 175.
Ventricular standstill, Paroxysmal (Harold Cookson). 350.
Ventricular weight in cardiac hypertrophy (R. M. Fulton, E. C. Hutchinson, and A. Morgan Jones). 413.

Y

Young adults, Rheumatic fever in (W. T. Zimdahl). 70.
